Before Mr. Tilden is again a candidate for the Presidency, the charge that in early days he sold grates for horse-radish should be investigated.

All the little folk in the land will lament to hear that the famous General Tom Thumb is dead. Few larger men have made more noise in the world.

There is a general election in Utah on the 6th of August. General attention will be directed toward the workings of the Edmunds law, which prohibits the voting of polygamists.

The New York World heads an editorial with the word "Fudge." That excellent porous plaster for the aching back of the Democracy would do well to have that word stereotyped on its editorial page.

Of course the Democracy want "to turn the rascals out," but there is justifiable public apprehension that they would do nothing to keep out the rascals who would clamor for the vacant places.

The Democratic Presidential possibilities are running such a muck against each other that the party may after all be compelled to fall back on Ben Butler as the only available candidate.

Mrs. Myra Bradwell, of the Chicago Legal News, is one of the intellectual and physical steam engines of that city. She is editor and proprietor of the Legal News, an able lawyer, a good wife, a model mother, a splendid housekeeper, possesses social qualities of a very high order, and does more work every day of her life than twenty ordinary Chicago lawyers.

The telegraphers strike which was inaugurated at noon on Thursday of last week, continues with increasing confidence on both sides. Thus far the operators have received the worst of the fight, and are another week passed will undoubtedly regret their action. The Western Union and other companies will certainly not grant the demands of the operators or treat in any way with Telegraphers' Brotherhood.

Governor Crittenden deserves unstinted praise for his refusal to remit the first fine imposed under the Downing license law. "The law," he says, "is plain, simple, reasonable, wholesome, and should be obeyed." The Governor adds that he will remit no fines at all laid under it. Justice, in truth, is quite as often brought into contempt by grants of pardons to criminals as by failure of courts to convict in the first instance. There are men who can never refuse a request to sign a petition, and petitions for the remission of penalties are altogether too common. Governor Crittenden virtually declares that violations of the Downing law ought to be punished as certainly and as speedily as violations of the laws against burglary, or murder—or even horse stealing. And he is quite right. The Downing law is law, and a good law, too.

Dominico Freize, a distinguished Brazilian physician, has been making investigations as to the origin of yellow fever and has discovered in the blood of yellow fever patients a cryptococcus to which he has given the title of "anthropogenic, or yellow-producer." The little pest appears as "minute points or cells with grayish or fringed margins," and sometimes as "granular masses aggregated in a yellowish matrix." A gram of blood charged with the cryptococcus, and injected into the veins of a rabbit caused death inside a quarter hour. A gram of the rabbit's blood injected into a guinea pig quickly produced death. This experiment was carried on much farther, and invariably the blood of the dead animals was found to be swarming with animalcules, and proved fatal when placed in other animals. Earth from the grave of a yellow fever patient, who had died a year before, was placed in a box with a guinea pig, and at the end of five days the animal died, and its blood was found to be literally swarming with germs. This remarkable experiment points strongly toward the conclusion that graveyards should be strictly quarantined and bodies cremated during epidemics.

Tuesday night, July 24th, a terrible calamity occurred at North Point, Illinois, an excursion resort on the Patapsco, ten miles from Baltimore, Maryland, at about 10 o'clock. Of lives lost the number is estimated at between sixty and seventy. The accident was caused by the giving way of the outer portion of the pier, on which several hundred persons were congregated, awaiting the boat to return to the city. The locality is in a small bay, distant about two miles from North Point lighthouse. It was formerly known as Holley Grove, and was the first regular excursion place fixed up near the city about fifteen years ago, and was the most popular resort at that time and for several years afterward.

A dark suspicion arises that John Kelly is playing a deep and deadly game. The New York regular Democrats have been making arrangements to keep Tammany out of the State Convention this fall, and Kelly's apparent endorsement of Tilden may simply be a trick to kill opposition and secure admission. Kelly's position is that if the majority of Democrats signify that they want Tilden for President, no Democrat should refuse to support him. But suppose that Kelly should contend that the majority of Democrats must not want Tilden. Thus both suspicion and the brother's cup. Tammy might be kept out of the Convention just to try Kelly's sincerity. But it is none of our business.

Ms. Watterson daily grows more amiable. In a recent editorial he says: "The Courier-Journal has never designed to injure the character or thwart the ambition of Mr. Samuel J. Randall." But he adds a very solemn reminder to the Democracy in these words: "But, in our judgment his election will, if it does not prove the signal for the dissolution of the Democratic party, retard, to a ruinous extent, the growth and progress of sound economic principles, on which the future of the party must depend." He then adds a little taffy to sweeten the dose, and closes with: "Not in fear, but in friendship, do we advise him to get out of a contest in which he has everything to lose and nothing to gain."

MAITLAND.

George Hutchinson Started for St. Joe Monday. The following Oregonites were in town last Friday: Nick Stock, N. J. Kyger, Wm. Frame, Henry Sterrett, Louis Moore and Clara Irvine. It was circus day, and some of their friends here supposed they were following the circus. Yes, J. S. Kenyon is smiling serenely. Coz why— it's a b'oy, which came to his house last Monday, and Oh, yes, Dee Hedg-peth is another lucky man—it's a visitor that came

"Out from the shore of the unknown sea, Tossing in playful agony."

Of the unknown sea that rocks and rolls, Speckled with the backs of little soles—arks that were launched on the other side And slipped from Heaven on an ebbing tide!"

And it came to stay—it's a wee little girl. Mrs. William Keller gave birth to twins last Sunday, a little boy and a little girl. We regret to have to chronicle the death of both the little ones within twenty-four hours after birth. At this writing the mother is in a critical condition. We hope she may soon recover. Mr. William Hoffmann and Miss Philomena Spoerle paid their friends in Graham and Maitland a pleasant visit, last Sunday. Dr. Milton Parrish, of Craig, was taking in our town last week. Dr. M. Saville of Maitland, was in our city a few hours last week. Matthew Rayhill, from near New Point, was in town last week getting ready to start on a trip to Nebraska. John Shuttis was in town last week carrying his arm in a sling. He had sprained it in some way. Died, Thursday, July 19th, Mrs. M. A. Brown, aged seventy-eight years, mother of Mrs. Alfred Moore. Her remains were taken to Huntington, Indiana, for interment. Mr. and Mrs. Moore accompanied the casket containing the body to its last resting place. Mrs. E. F. Weller and Mrs. William Everhart went over to the Mound City Mineral Springs last week. H. E. R. Kelly has bought the stock of furniture from William Everhart and will carry on the business. James C. Smock, who has been quite sick for several days, is convalescing. Joe Collison was in town last Monday, so was B. O. Cowan; and what was that going thundering down the ages, if it wasn't Lee Oren's laugh? Which it was of course. Come again, gentlemen, we will always be glad to greet you. James Ewing, I. N. Phillips and Col. Libby are all back at home again. Mr. Ewing, we learn, will soon open up a stock of goods at Atxell, Kansas. May success go with him. Louis Moore cruelly arrested a young man on circus day. The boy was enjoying himself with his girl on the upper seat in the circus, and Louis beguiled him down and took him away to put him in durance vile. How sad!

FOREBS.

Rev. Hiltman, Presbyterian, filled his regular appointment Sunday night. Miss Anna Shambaugh was in town last Saturday, purchasing an unusual amount of dress goods. In the language of the poet, "Why is this thus, and what is this thyness?" We have three or four young men engaged in a race. The best man will be the one who gets married first. Sam Evans and his better-half had a few words last Wednesday and parted. She is visiting relatives and friends in the vicinity of New Point. Miss Wilkinson, of Forest City, is spending a few days with her friend, Miss Julia Devores. Miss Jennie Campbell, of Gentry county, is here visiting friends and relatives. Forbes is getting to be quite a summer resort. All the boys are putting on an extra twist to their mustaches, owing to the report that several St. Joe girls are to be up this week, visiting friends in this vicinity.

One of the most unearthly sounds heard by man was wafted here by a north wind the other evening. Everybody ran out and listened; it kept on coming. A committee was organized to investigate and see if it was dangerous; about two-and-a-half miles north they found Mike Peirce trying to learn to play an Eb horn. They pulverized him and peace has once more gained her equilibrium.

GORDON.

Hard to find in harvest times? Items. Harvesting about over in this part of Holt. Crops good. Can you tell us who cut more grain than Ad. Gordon. (We will try and find out if you will tell us how much grain Mr. G. cut.—Ed.) Messrs. Wandling & Co. began threshing the crop of W. L. Thompson on the 18th inst. The storm did very little damage in this section. Mr. John Norman and Mrs. A. W. Brownlee are on the sick list. The house of Ferd Meadows was entered during his absence on the 15th, and $40 taken out of a trunk. Where is there a better detective than G. R. McIntyre?

.....We understand the directors of Franklin district have engaged Mr. E. Logan, of Atchison county, to teach their school the coming winter. This is his second term in this district. J. H. Fickes will teach at Gordon's this winter. Mr. Joseph Aades, near the Union church, is putting up a fine residence. E. G. Smith, of Mound City, is doing the painting. The show is among the things of the past, as well as the fifty cents we had some time ago.

BLUFF CITY.

Miss Flora Crouser has returned to St. Joe. David Keller, of Bolckow, Missouri, is visiting his brother, Levi Keller. Frank Breeze, of St. Joseph, is visiting in our burg, this week. Mrs. Cindy Curzon has removed to Winthrop. Mr. Allen Wilson and wife, of Corns, Kansas, are visiting the family of B. B. Harrison. We regret to say that Mr. W. is in very poor health. Mr. John Cannon has the contract for putting in a combination bridge across Mill creek. He is pushing the work to completion as fast as possible. Joe Henry, of Maitland, was circulating among the boys last Sunday. Wonder why "that fellow" didn't catch the young lady that fell out of the cherry tree the other night? Wood dealers from St. Joe, Omaha and other places, are numerous in the timber districts of lower Holt, and the prospects are in favor of fuel being scarce the coming winter. W. S. Gifford and C. A. Reed, of St. Joseph, spent last Sunday in Bluff City. Black berries are ripe. The farm upon which the Curzon family have lived since 1865 has changed hands, W. S. Gifford, of St. Joseph, is now the owner. It comprises a tract of some 600 acres. Mr. Gifford's brother, Courtland, who is a large wood dealer, will be associated with him, and they will soon be prepared to go into a general trading business on a cash basis, fitting the place into a stock farm, dealing in all kinds of produce; in fact, any thing the farmer has to sell. Messrs. Giffords are known to be honest, upright gentlemen, and will be of service to Holt county. Stacking grain is now the order of the day. Jesse Crouser is improving. Mr. Schlottbauer is having his cord-wood hauled to the switch. We would like to see some one to tell us how the Bluff City correspondent of the Press knows that Vine Hovey, of Forest City, is making money? There have been several extra trains on the K. C. R. R. within the past week. We would like to hear Tom Fee tell where he found him self last Saturday morning about daylight. Lee Wilson, of Forest City, is once more making regular trips to this neighborhood. That is, he is down here every Sunday, and we don't know what else to call them but regular. Mr. Schlottbauer sold his fat hogs to B. B. Harrison last week. We did not learn the price. From the way that things look at present, we believe that we will have the pleasure of eating some wedding cake before long. Charles Curzon shipped several car loads of walnut logs from the switch to Messrs. Hax & Co., St. Joe, on the 21st. We don't see why some merchant don't put up a store at Curzon's Switch, and a postoffice is also very badly needed at this place.

FOREST CITY.

H. T. Alkire has sold his stock of goods to John H. Minton, who will conduct the business in the name of Minton & Alkire, James Alkire retaining his interest. Mr. Joseph Groves has sold his nice residence property to John H. Minton. Mr. Groves, for the present, will occupy the Whorby property in the north end of town. Mr. J. M. Ford has returned from his Texas trip. He reports the cattle interest in that state in good condition. Charles Graves, David Perkins and George Martz are seeing the sights in St. Joseph. Mr. Hatfield who moved to the bottom last spring for the purpose of farming, having lost his crop, has returned to Forest and engaged in the butcher business with Mr. Watson. Eighty dozen chickens were shipped from here Monday for the New York market. Mr. St. John, of Council Bluffs, is buying and shipping fruit from this place. Our operator, Mr. Potter, is on a strike, and says he is sure to win—bread and butter. Married, at the house of Boyd, in Forest City, July 20th, Esquire Wilkinson, Mr. W. M. to Miss Mary O. Boyce, of Holt county.

MOUND CITY.

We have been favored with a show, a wedding and two births, and an institute within the last week. The show came on Thursday and left on Friday. The attendance was large, and the haul good for the show. Our instructor for the institute arrived Saturday, and work was commenced Monday with good prospects of a well attended and valuable session. Sunday evening at 5 o'clock Mr. F. S. Fessler and Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, of our city, were married at the bride's residence. Mr. Porter, of the Baptist church, performing the ceremony. C. K. Corsaut and R. E. Key were in especially good humor, Monday. Cause—the arrival of a son for each on Sunday. It has been determined to hold a Holt County Union Sunday School Convention on the 15th of August. The place selected provisionally, is the Mineral Springs. Committees on grounds, invitation, program and music have been appointed, and everything will be done to make the affair enjoyable. Prominent speakers from abroad will be present, and it is hoped that all the schools in the county and those of Atchison and Nodaway counties that are within reach will be in attendance. Let everybody come and have a grand time.
